Dear Carl,

This last weekend we travelled to London to the Joint the Dots Jaunch for 2014 with Sublime. I was unable to stay for the whole evening as our son at seven weeks has started teething! We travelled to Ashburnham for a lovely rest at the Ashburnham Christian retreat centre in Battle, before heading to Folkestone.

I had the tremendous privilege of speaking at Folkestones' Churches Together United Service on Sunday evening. Over one hundred people had signed up earlier in the year to pray for their neighbours. Please see our map here to see the multitude of yellow dots over our map in Folkestone!

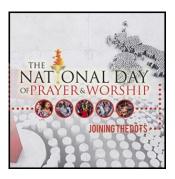

The chair of churches together, Mark Fletcher, along with over a hundred people from Folkestone, had attended the National Day of Prayer and Worship on 29th September 2012. At this event, Neighbourhood Prayer Network was launched and hearing about us, many people from Folkestone signed up to pray for their neighbours. This was facilitated by Jon Clarke, our postcode co-ordinator in Folkestone.

Mark Fletcher, Chair of Churches together writes

"There are 28 member churches in Churches Together Folkestone and an excellent level of co-operation so that there is a drop-in, Food Stop, Winter shelter and many other social care initiatives staffed by volunteers across the churches plus street pastors, a Christian book shop and so on. Importantly there are four United Services a year plus a major town centre Good Friday service and procession of crosses, a dawn Easter Sunday service, monthly prayer breakfasts and good participation in prayer weeks.

Excitingly earlier this year the One Day event saw teams of Christians delivering the Father's Love letter to almost every home in Folkestone. We worked through the 9 different electoral wards and that is the system set up to co-ordinate Neighbourhood Prayer here initially until very local groups begin to cover their own streets.

Neighbourhood Prayer got a good 'lift off' as we prayed by the crosses on the hill looking over the different areas of the town and has had a number of little promotions. As you know, over a hundred people are on board but just three local groups have met so far. Jon Clarke is facilitating NP here and keeping the list of participants and looking for 'ward-links' who will encourage people living in the 9 wards to meet and pray and act in their communities."

At the service, I was able to share testimonies with people from around the UK, to encourage people to keep praying. Some people were worried about being able to pray for a whole street. We advise that people choose three houses on each street and pray regularly for these houses, praying a general blessing or perhaps the Lord's prayer over the rest of the street.

There was a genuine sense of unity among the Churches in Folkestone.

After the service, people were invited to gather around tables in the church hall, each table representing a different ward. The aim of this was that people could meet others living near them, in the hope that some people may be able to pray together or help their neighbours together. Several more people signed up after the service. The intention is that every ward would have a link co-ordinator to help people get together or stay in contact. Sadly, Carl and I had to drive back to Manchester after the evening service, otherwise we would have loved to have stayed and talked to more people.

Folkestone is also planning a football stadium event in 2014 as a pentecost celebration, hoping that 2000 Christians will attend. They also have plans to work together for the HOPE year of mission. I wait in eager anticipation to see how the many seeds of prayer sown, will bear fruit in the coming weeks and months and years!

SUNDAY 10TH NOV REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY 1 TIM 4:12 Almost 100 years ago, a world war began which wiped out vast numbers of Europe's young men. Father, raise up a generation of children and young people in the UK and across Europe who follow You with passion. May young people everywhere be encouraged to challenge the old and to unlock the new.

MONDAY 11TH NOV MISSIONAL LIVING 1 TIM 6:12 Pray for Christian young people, that they will be passionate disciples and witnesses for Jesus to those around them. TUESDAY 12TH NOV BULLYING JOHN 10:10 Nine out of ten children have some experience of bullying, either as a witness or a participant. Pray for an end to bullying! Pray that bullied young people will find the right support, that their friends will stand up against the culture of bullying, and that suicide rates among young people will decrease.

WEDNESDAY 13TH NOV SALVATION EPH 2:10 Give thanks that God longs for every child and young person to come to know His Son Jesus. Pray for children or young people you know who don't know God's love; that they will have a revelation of how awesome it is, and will link up with a youth group or holiday club in 2014.

THURSDAY 14TH NOV SELF-IMAGE PS 139:14 Many of our children and young people have never heard the truth that they are made in God's image. Pray for protection for the most vulnerable: for those who struggle with eating disorders, who become addicted to drugs, alcohol and pornography, or who are drawn into sexual relationships to find their value.
