Dear Carl,

God can use all of us in any situation. This week we share a remarkable testimony of what can happen when we listen carefully to what God is saying. We are grateful to the gentleman whom this story is about; for giving us permission to share what happened to him and how his neighbours were able to help him. Out of respect for his privacy, we have omitted names. We hope this encourages you and shows you the love God has for all of us.

Testimony

My husband and I worship at our local Baptist church and began praying for our neighbours. We started to invite a neighbour aged 74, who lost his wife a few months earlier, to supper, approximately twice a month.

In February 2013 one tuesday evening, we expected him to come at 6pm, but that morning I woke at 6am to sense a picture of our neighbour on the floor.

I was so concerned in the afternoon, I phoned him to see if he was OK and remind him of our supper (I didn't mention the picture). He assured me he was fine and would see us at 6pm.

When he didn't arrive at 6pm, my husband went to another neighbour who had a house key, to check if he was alright. After knocking on the door and getting no reply, they let themselves in, to find our neighbour on the floor.

He was taken by ambulance to hospital where it was discovered he had had a small stroke and was awaiting surgery to unblock a neck artery (one artery was 100% blocked and the other 95% blocked) so the operation was very serious and naturally he was very concerned.

Two days before the appointed surgery, I woke to a sensing of a very large Biblical angel whose wing tips spanned from our car park across the road to our neighbour's home and a sensing that all would be well.

I told his daughter of these two Godly events and she asked me to phone her Dad in hospital and tell him. I phoned him to tell him what had happened assuring him to go to the theatre calmly, as he was in God's safe hands and all would be well.

The operation was successful and he was home a day later to recover and is now back to enjoying his life again. This experience has had a massive effect of strengthening our neighbour's faith! My husband and I have a deeper sense of thankfulness that God would use us, two very ordinary people, to help our neighbour!

Sincerely A & L, Hampshire

What a great testimony of simply acting on what God was sharing through a picture in morning time of prayer.

Every Blessing
