Dear Carl,

We now have over five hundred people registered to pray for their street with a registration from India and the US! I firmly believe as we pray for our neighbours, get to know and care for our neighbours, that we will see a sense of community return and isolation fall. There are 1.7 million people the the UK who are unable to leave their homes due to illness. Many of these will see only one or two people per month. We live in a lonely society! Together, we can change our nation, one street at a time! Thank you for being a source of hope for your neighbours, on your street!

This last week, Linda Hurr from "Colchester Prayernet" contacted us to tell us that they were aiming to see every street in Colchester covered in Christian prayer. They are recruiting 27 prayer wardens to represent all the wards in Colchester. The aim of these wardens is to communicate with churches in each ward and encourage as many churches and individuals, to take responsibility for praying for their streets. In February 2013, a larger scale prayer meeting involving churches from many denominations, will take place. We are excited about this initiative and would encourage others around the UK to consider this model.

This model is similar to postcode co-ordinators, except the geographical area is slightly larger. If you would like to sign up to be a postcode co-ordinator for Neighbourhood Prayer Network or become a church representative in another part of the country, please click here.

A prayer point for us, is that we are at the final stages of Registering our Charity, please pray this final stage goes smoothly.

Finally, don't forget to get hold of the book, most of what we do is based around it's content - to order Click Here.

Praying for your Street - Churches

We've passed the 500 streets barrier, with 513 streets being prayed for as we speak.

You'll notice we've changed the pins on the map to smaller circles to better show the area's being prayed for.

Our next target is to push past the 1,000 streets barrier.

Would you be able to talk to your friends and see if they could pray for their street too ?
